

Shabbat Shalom to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic third lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 07-22-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sun, 10-18-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

Kerrie's Korner

Yom Shemini the LAST GREAT DAY

But today holds an even greater significance. In addition to the seventh-day Sabbath, we celebrate Yom Shemini, the LAST GREAT DAY, the EIGHTH DAY, which prophetically points to the glorious beginning of eternity!

Within the prophetic framework of Yahuah's Plan of Salvation, six thousand years have been allotted for the terrible consequences of sin and Satan's rebellion to be fully revealed before the universe. These are followed by the seventh millennium, the one thousand years during which the victorious redeemed dwell with Yahusha in the heavenly realm, participating in the judgment and beholding the perfect justice and mercy of their Creator and Savior (Revelation 20:4-6; 1 Corinthians 6:2-3).

Then, at the close of the seventh millennium, comes the moment toward which the entire Plan of Salvation has been moving. Following the final judgment and the complete destruction of sin, Satan, and death, Yahuah makes all things new. The heavens and earth are renewed, and the redeemed behold the glorious fulfillment of His eternal promise. The former things have passed away, and the sorrowful history of sin will never again be repeated (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:1-5).

And then comes one of the most breathtaking scenes in all of Scripture! John beholds the Holy City, New Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from Yahuah, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. The heavenly city, radiant with divine glory, becomes the eternal dwelling place of the redeemed. The great marriage covenant reaches its glorious fulfillment as Yahuah makes His dwelling with His people, and they shall be His forever.

No more death! No more sorrow! No more crying or pain! Every tear will be wiped away, for the former things have passed away. The curse of sin is forever removed, and the redeemed shall behold the face of their Creator and reign with Him forever and ever (Revelation 21:2-4; 22:3-5).

This is the magnificent promise foreshadowed by Yom Shemini, the EIGHTH DAY! After six millennia of sin and the seventh millennium of heavenly rest and judgment, the eighth begins an eternity without end. The sacred Bridal Covenant is fulfilled, the Earth is restored to its original beauty, and the redeemed enter the everlasting joy of dwelling in the presence of Yahuah and Yahusha haMashiach.

What began in Eden was interrupted by sin and was progressively revealed through the sacred appointments of Yahuah's calendar; now it reaches its glorious consummation. The Plan of Salvation is complete, the Bride has been made ready, and eternity begins!

This is the LAST GREAT DAY, when TIME gives way to the unending ages of righteousness, peace, and everlasting love.

The Ten Commandments Prayer of Faith

An Earnest Prayer of Confession, Surrender, and Covenant Faithfulness

Search My Heart, O Yahuah

Everlasting Father, Yahuah Alahim, we come before Your throne of mercy with humble hearts, acknowledging that we have often fallen short of the holiness, love, and obedience You desire for Your faithful Bride. We have wandered in ways we scarcely recognize, excused sins we should have confessed, and allowed the cares and pleasures of this world to compete with our devotion to You. Yet You have not abandoned us. Through the precious sacrifice and intercession of Your Son, Yahusha haMashiach, You continue to call us out of darkness and into the glorious light of Your truth.

Father, we do not wish merely to appear righteous before others while harboring hidden sins within. We desire clean hands, pure hearts, and lives that reflect Your character. We long to honor You not only with our words, but with our thoughts, motives, decisions, relationships, and the sacred TIME You have appointed for worship.

As we prayerfully examine Your Ten Commandments, may we see them not as burdensome restrictions, but as expressions of Your perfect love and righteous character. Let each commandment become a mirror in which we recognize our need for repentance, and a lamp illuminating the path of covenant faithfulness. Where pride has blinded us, grant humility. Where selfishness has ruled, awaken love. Where compromise has taken root, give us courage to surrender completely.

We know that obedience alone cannot purchase salvation, for redemption is Your gracious gift through Yahusha haMashiach. Yet a heart truly transformed by Your love will desire to walk in Your ways. We do not ask merely to know Your commandments, but to have Your law written upon our stony hearts, so that obedience becomes the joyful expression of our love for You.

Search us, O Yahuah, and know our hearts. Try us, and reveal every hidden way that grieves You. Lead us in the way everlasting. (Psalm 139:23-24)

And now, Father, in the precious name of Yahusha haMashiach, we ask You to reveal the subtle deceptions of our hearts as we prayerfully examine each of Your Ten Commandments.

1. You Shall Have No Other Alahim Before Me

Father, forgive us for the many times we have allowed someone or something to occupy the place that belongs to You alone. Reveal every hidden idol within our hearts, whether possessions, pleasures, ambitions, relationships, recognition, or the pursuit of worldly success. Guard us against the subtle schemes of the adversary, who seeks to replace our highest devotion to You with things that cannot satisfy the soul.

Teach us to love You above all else and to seek first Your Kingdom and righteousness. May the use of our time, energy, resources, and affections reveal that You truly reign supreme in our lives. Let our souls thirst for You as the deer pants for the water brooks, and may our greatest delight be found in Your presence. (1 John 2:15-17; Psalm 42:1-2)

2. You Shall Not Make for Yourself a Carved Image

Yahuah, forgive us whenever we have attempted to confine Your infinite majesty within the limitations of human imagination, visible objects to worship, or man-made traditions. You are the living Alahim, and no earthly image of paper, wood, or stone can adequately represent Your holiness, glory, or eternal nature.

Guard us against becoming so absorbed in the outward forms of worship that we lose sight of the One we have come to honor. May our worship never become an empty ceremony or a substitute for genuine communion with You.

Teach us to worship You in spirit and in truth, with hearts surrendered to Your WORD. Help us to walk by faith rather than sight, trusting Your promises even when we cannot see the path before us. May our worship exalt You alone, never the works of human hands. (John 4:24; 2 Corinthians 5:7)

3. You Shall Not Take the Name of Yahuah Your Alahim in Vain

Yahuah Alahim and Yahsuah haMashiach, forgive us for every careless, irreverent, or thoughtless use of Your sacred Names. Forgive us also for the times we have claimed to represent You while our conduct has contradicted Your character.

May we never dishonor Your Name through hypocrisy, dishonesty, empty promises, rash speech, or a careless attitude toward holy things. Guard our tongues from idle words, gossip, bitterness, and speech that wounds others.

Let our words be seasoned with grace, our promises be trustworthy, and our conversations reflect the reverence due Your holiness. Above all, may the lives we live bring honor to the Names we profess to love. (Psalm 24:3-4; Titus 1:16; Ecclesiastes 5:2; Matthew 12:36)

4. Remember the Sabbath Day, to Keep It Holy

Creator of heaven and earth, forgive us for the times we have allowed human traditions, worldly obligations, or personal pleasures to overshadow the sacred TIME You appointed for communion with Your people.

You established the seventh-day Sabbath as a holy appointment, a precious gift of rest, worship, and remembrance of Your creative and redeeming power. Yet humanity has often substituted its own understanding of TIME for the divine order established in Your WORD.

Father, we thank You for opening our understanding to recognize that Your sacred calendar includes not only the seventh-day Sabbaths, but also the sacred New Moon Day and the seven annual Feast Days. Together, these appointed times reveal Your magnificent pattern of redemption, each finding its meaning and fulfillment in Yahusha haMashiach. Through these divine appointments, You have woven the remedy for sin into the very fabric of TIME, revealing the unfolding Plan of Salvation and preparing a covenant people to dwell with You throughout eternity.

Forgive us for the generations of neglect and misunderstanding concerning Your appointed times. Continue to open our eyes to the sacred order You established, beginning with the full New Moon, from which Your monthly Sabbaths and yearly sacred days are counted. Give us the courage to follow Your revealed truth, even when obedience requires separation from cherished traditions and the familiar practices of the world.

Deliver us from becoming slaves to labor, material pursuits, entertainment, or endless activity. Teach us to work faithfully during the appointed working days while joyfully setting apart Your Sabbaths, New Moon Days, and annual Feasts for worship, fellowship, spiritual renewal, and remembrance of Your mighty works.

May our families discover the beauty of gathering around Your WORD, sharing Your goodness, and delighting in the sacred TIME in which You have placed Your blessings. Let every appointed day become a living testimony of our covenant relationship with You, and a reminder that Yahusha haMashiach is the center and fulfillment of Your glorious Plan of Salvation.

May we never again treat as ordinary what You have declared sacred, nor allow the traditions of men to obscure the divine appointments through which You reveal Your love, Your redemption, and Your promise of everlasting life.

(Genesis 2:2-3; Exodus 20:8-11; Leviticus 23; Numbers 28-29; Psalm 104:19; Ezekiel 20:12; Isaiah 66:22-23)

5. Honor Your Father and Your Mother

Loving Father, forgive us for the times we have failed to show proper honor, gratitude, patience, and respect toward our earthly parents. Remind us that the gift of family carries sacred responsibilities extending throughout every season of life.

Teach children to obey their parents with willing hearts, and grant parents the wisdom to nurture their children in righteousness, tenderness, and truth. May our homes become places where Your love is demonstrated through kindness, forgiveness, faithful instruction, and mutual respect.

As our parents and grandparents grow older, protect us from neglecting their needs or viewing their care as an inconvenience. Give us compassionate hearts that willingly return the love and sacrifices once extended to us.

Help us also to respect rightful authority while remembering that our highest allegiance belongs to You. May we faithfully pray for those entrusted with leadership, yet never place human authority above Your eternal WORD. (Ephesians 6:1-4; 1 Timothy 5:3-4; Romans 13:1-7; Acts 5:29)

6. You Shall Not Murder

Yahuah, Giver of Life, forgive us for every thought, word, or attitude that has diminished the sacred worth of another human being. Search our hearts for anger, resentment, bitterness, jealousy, unforgiveness, and hidden hatred.

Teach us to recognize that the commandment against murder reaches beyond the taking of physical life to the condition of the heart from which violence and hatred arise.

Where relationships have been broken, give us humility to seek reconciliation. Where we have been wounded, grant us the grace to forgive. Where others suffer, awaken compassion rather than indifference.

May we cherish every human life, from the unborn child to the elderly, the disabled, the lonely, and the forgotten. We pray for mothers facing difficult pregnancies, fathers struggling with fear or responsibility, and medical professionals making decisions concerning human life. Surround them with truth, compassion, practical support, and a renewed reverence for the lives You have created.

Let us become peacemakers who reflect the mercy and love of Yahusha haMashiach, refusing to allow hatred to find a permanent home within our hearts. (Ephesians 4:26-32; 1 John 3:15; Matthew 5:21-24)

7. You Shall Not Commit Adultery

Holy Father, forgive us for the ways our thoughts, desires, and actions have sometimes dishonored the purity and sacredness of the marriage covenant.

Protect husbands and wives from temptation, selfishness, neglect, and divided affections. Renew within marriages the tenderness, faithfulness, respect, and enduring love that reflect Your covenant relationship with Your people.

May husbands cherish their wives, wives honor their husbands, and both find joy in the sacred promises they have made before You. Guard every marriage from influences that would weaken its foundation.

For those who are unmarried, grant contentment, patience, and strength to pursue purity in thought and conduct. Protect all of us from entertainment, images, conversations, and private habits that awaken desires contrary to Your will.

Purify our imaginations and teach us to dwell upon whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, and worthy of praise. May self-control, faithfulness, and holiness become visible fruits of Your Spirit working within us. (Proverbs 5:18; Hebrews 13:4; 2 Timothy 2:22; Philippians 4:8; Galatians 5:22-23)

8. You Shall Not Steal

Father, forgive us for every occasion when selfishness, dishonesty, greed, or carelessness has caused us to take or withhold what rightfully belongs to another.

Teach us to honor You with the resources You have entrusted to our care. May our giving arise from grateful hearts rather than mere obligation, and may we faithfully support the work of Your Kingdom and the needs of those less fortunate.

Guard us against dishonesty in business, unfair dealings, unpaid obligations, misuse of another person's property, and every financial practice that compromises integrity.

Help us to recognize that stealing can also occur through wasted opportunities, neglected responsibilities, or the misuse of TIME and resources entrusted to us.

Deliver us from laziness, reckless spending, gambling, and the restless pursuit of wealth. Teach us to work diligently, give generously, live responsibly, and find satisfaction in Your faithful provision.

May we become trustworthy stewards who remember that everything we possess ultimately belongs to You. (Proverbs 6:6-11; Proverbs 3:9-10; 2 Corinthians 8:1-9; Ephesians 4:28)

9. You Shall Not Bear False Witness Against Your Neighbor

Father of Truth, forgive us for every lie, exaggeration, misleading statement, or deliberate silence through which we have distorted the truth.

Reveal the subtle ways we sometimes protect our reputation at the expense of honesty, repeat harmful stories without knowing the facts, or present only those details that make ourselves appear innocent.

Guard our lips from gossip, slander, flattery, false accusations, and words spoken to injure another person's character. Teach us to honor confidences and to speak truth with both courage and love.

Deliver us from the hypocrisy of professing devotion to You while hiding dishonesty within our hearts. May our worship never consist merely of beautiful words sung by lips that are far from You.

Let truthfulness become the foundation of our relationships, and may others recognize in us the integrity of those who will rise up and walk in the light of Yahusha haMashiach. (Proverbs 11:13; Proverbs 17:9; Ephesians 4:15; Matthew 15:8)

10. You Shall Not Covet

Gracious Father, forgive us for the restless desires that cause us to overlook Your blessings while longing for what You have entrusted to others.

Search our hearts for envy, jealousy, discontentment, and the belief that happiness can be purchased through greater possessions, wealth, status, or worldly recognition.

Teach us to rejoice sincerely in the blessings of others without comparing their circumstances with our own. Protect us from unnecessary debt, impulsive purchases, and the deceptive promise that acquiring more will finally satisfy our souls.

Replace envy with gratitude, complaining with praise, anxiety with prayer, and selfish ambition with contentment.

May we recognize that the greatest treasure is not found in earthly possessions but in knowing You and walking faithfully in Your presence.

Teach us to be content in every circumstance, trusting that You know our needs and will faithfully provide according to Your wisdom and love. (1 Timothy 6:6-10; Philippians 4:6-7; Philippians 4:11-13; Hebrews 13:5)

Closing Prayer: Write Your Law Upon Our Hearts

Everlasting Father, Yahuah Alahim, having prayerfully examined Your Ten Commandments, we recognize how deeply we need Your mercy, forgiveness, and transforming grace.

We confess that our greatest struggle is not merely with outward behavior, but with the hidden motives, desires, and affections of the heart. Too often we have sought to justify ourselves rather than surrender ourselves. Too often we have followed what was familiar, convenient, or acceptable to others rather than asking what is pleasing in Your sight.

Father, we do not wish to leave this time of prayer unchanged.

Where we have sinned, lead us to genuine repentance. Where we have wandered, restore us. Where we have resisted Your truth, soften our hearts. Where we have neglected Your commandments, awaken within us a renewed love for righteousness.

Through Yahusha haMashiach, cleanse us from our sins and strengthen us to walk in newness of life. Fulfill within us Your covenant promise to write Your law upon our hearts and place Your truth within our minds. May obedience never become a lifeless exercise of religious duty, but the grateful response of hearts redeemed by Your love.

Prepare us as a faithful covenant Bride, clothed in the righteousness of Yahusha, awaiting the glorious day when we shall dwell forever in Your presence.

And as we pray for ourselves, we also lift before You our brothers and sisters throughout the world. May Your Spirit awaken a sincere hunger for truth, a willingness to forsake every cherished sin, and a steadfast determination to honor You in all things.

May our lives become living testimonies that Your commandments are holy, Your judgments are righteous, Your mercy is everlasting, and Your love is worthy of our complete devotion.

We ask these things in the precious and victorious Name of Yahusha haMashiach.

Amen.

Prayer:

Everlasting Father, Yahuah Alahim,
We thank You for this precious week of prayer, reflection, and praise, as we have remembered Your faithfulness throughout the ages and recognized
Your magnificent Plan of Salvation unfolding in our own lives.

This has been a time to renew our trust in You, strengthen our faith, and reflect upon the divine pattern of TIME and EVENT revealed through Your mighty works.

Just as You faithfully delivered the Children of Yasharal from Egyptian bondage, restored them to Your appointed order of sacred TIME, and guided them through the wilderness toward the Promised Land, we trust that You will faithfully lead us as well.

May we never forget that the same loving Father who fulfilled every promise to Yasharal is preparing us for our final deliverance and entrance into the eternal Promised Land.

Strengthen our hearts to trust Your perfect timing, follow
Your WORD, and remain faithful until that glorious day when we dwell forever in Your presence.

In the precious Name of Yahusha haMashiach
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
