Verse 2	that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose. Verse 3	And the Lord said, "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years."	And then declared Yahuah, My Ruach (presence) shall not strive with mankind always, as he is flesh ; but I have set forth his days as one hundred and twenty years (or revolutions of time) .

Verse 4	There were giants (nephilim) on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men (gibbor) who were of old, men of renown .	Fallen tyrants and bullies (Nephilim) were in the land in those days and also after that. Therefore, when the Sons of Alahim came in unto the daughters of [defiled] mankind, and bore children to them, the fallen mighty men (gibbor), who previously were men of the NAME, and of honor.
Verse 5	Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.	And Yahuah beheld that exceedingly great was the wickedness of mankind upon the earth, as every steadfast purpose of the thoughts of their hearts (minds) was only evil every day.
Verse 6	And the Lord was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.	And Yahuah the Aleph and Tav was sorrowful regarding His creation of mankind upon the earth, and he was grieved within His heart.
