

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days!

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Third Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic 3rd lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary Wednesday, 07-06-2022.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE RUACH

By Jonathan Cahn

He took me to an open desert plain. It was a windy day, so windy it was almost violent.

“Come,” said the teacher. He was asking me to walk against the wind’s blowing. So I did.

“What is it like to walk against the wind?” he asked.

“It’s a struggle,” I replied.

“In the language of Scripture,” he said, “the word for wind is ruach (H#7307 - רוח). But it has another meaning; it also means the Spirit [power, presence, and promise of YHUH]. In Hebrew, the Holy Spirit is the Holy Wind. So what happens if you walk against the wind?”

“It creates drag. It becomes harder to walk and you get tired.”

“In the same way,” he said, “when you walk against the Ruach (Spirit), it creates a drag on your life. Everything you do becomes harder. It takes more energy to do less. So when you go against His Ruach, you’re fighting against the Wind. And you can’t walk against the direction of the Wind without getting weary and worn out.”

“And what way is the direction of the Wind, the Ruach?”

“The Spirit is the Holy Ruach. Therefore, it blows in the direction of the holy, and blows against the direction of the unholy. Now try something else. Turn around and walk back, the same way you came.”

So I did. I was now walking in the direction the wind was blowing.

“And what was that like?” he asked.

“It was much easier,” I said.

“That’s because there was no drag,” he said. “You were walking in the direction of the wind. And the wind helped you walk. It moved you ahead. It made your walking easier. So when you walk against the wind, it creates drag. But if you turn around, then the wind gives you power. So it is with the Ruach. If you turn, if you change your course, if you repent, if you walk in the Ruach (Spirit), then the drag will disappear. Then the Ruach will empower you and will move you forward. And then everything you do, that you must do, will become easier.”

“So if you walk in the Ruach, I said, “life will go from being a drag to a breeze.”

“Yes,” said the teacher. “For those who walk in the Ruach, the Wind is at their back.”

The Mission: What part of your life is against the direction of the Ruach? Today, turn it around and start walking with the Wind at your back. John 3:8; Acts 2:2; Galatians 5:16-17.

In the same manner that the key focus puzzle piece is missing from this image, so too, has the lunar aspect of the definition of the Hebrew word mo'edim (H#4150 – מועדים) been lost or hidden from sight for nearly 2,000 years. And just as anyone explaining the image above would be careful to only describe what is visible, so too, translators, theologians, and scholars who have bought into the Roman solar calendar model for worship days, simply under-emphasized the Biblical lunar Key Focus word for time-measuring. This caused the average Bible reader to see only what was presented to be seen, such as the sun, a bird, or a plane, but never the moon. But that is about to change forever...
